ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children,
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely!
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples.
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather and bring to thee gracious salutations.
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus;
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

LOUIS F. BRAKEMAN

PROVOST

Dr. Brakeman, who as provost is the university's highest ranking academic officer, has been a member of the Stetson University family since 1987. He enjoys a national reputation in the important area of faculty professional development.

A 1992 recipient of a Distinguished Achievement Award from Kalamazoo College in Kalamazoo, Mich., he was graduated from Kalamazoo magna cum laude, with a bachelor's degree in political science. He was the recipient of a Danforth Graduate Fellowship, and attended the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University, Medford, Mass., receiving a master of arts degree and a Ph.D. degree in international relations. He studied in India for a year on a Fulbright Fellowship. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa national scholastic society and Omicron Delta Kappa national leadership honorary.

Prior to his appointment at Stetson, Dr. Brakeman was a member of the political science faculties at Carroll University in Waukesha, Wis., and Denison University in Granville, Ohio. He also served Denison as dean of the college, acting president, and provost. In 1986, he directed a study of professional development for the Great Lakes Colleges Association, and was a visiting professor of political science at Kalamazoo College.

He is co-author of What One Has Within What the Context Provides, Hiring and Keeping the Best Faculty, and Expanding Faculty Options.

Dr. Brakeman is active in community service as well as academic affairs. He is president of the West Volusia Board of the American Heart Association, is a former president of the Rotary Club of Granville, Ohio, and is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church of DeLand.
